OBESITY FROM BENCH TO BEDSIDE:
POTENTIAL FOR CROSS-CAMPUS RESEARCH COLLABORATIONS

OVERVIEW TALKS BY FOUR FACULTY MEMBERS DIRECTING OBESITY-RELATED RESEARCH AND PROGRAMS FOLLOWED BY INFORMAL NETWORKING AND LIGHT REFRESHMENTS WITH COLLEAGUES

PRESENTERS:

Obesity Research in Psychiatry: A Menu of Possibilities
Lance Bauer, Ph.D.
Professor, Dept. of Psychiatry, and Director, Neural Dynamics Lab, UCHC

Genetic Variants Associated with Obesity and Physical Activity among Young Adults
Linda S. Pescatello, Ph.D.
Professor, Dept. of Kinesiology, Neag School of Education, and Principal Investigator, Center for Health, Intervention, and Prevention, (CHIP), Storrs

Why Is It So Hard to Grow Up Healthy? Beliefs, Attitudes, and Behaviors of Hartford’s Parents
Michele Cloutier, M.D.
Pulmonologist and Professor, Dept. of Pediatrics, Connecticut Children’s Medical Center, and Director, Children’s Center for Community Research

Translating a Healthy Lifestyle Program for Dissemination in New York City
Judith Fifield, Ph.D.
Professor, Dept. of Family Medicine, and Director, Ethel Donaghue TRIPP Center, UCHC

DATE: Wednesday, April 2nd, 2013
TIME: 1:30pm - 3:00pm
LOCATION: Low Learning Center, UConn Health Center, 263 Farmington Ave., Farmington, CT
RSVP TO: Alicia Dugan at alicia.dugan@uconn.edu by March 28th

You can view this talk live during or after the lecture at the following website:
http://mediasite.uchc.edu/mediasite41/Play/4dc808b027aa4d2e42d2c8e5e2192a481e7e111

HOSTS: Helen Swede, Ph.D., Dept. of Community Medicine, UCHC
Amy Gorin, Ph.D., Dept. of Psychology, UConn, and Chair, CHIP/CICATS Obesity Research Interest Group
Alicia Dugan, Ph.D., Research Scientist, Center for Health, Intervention, and Prevention, Storrs, and Boundary Spanner, CT Institute for Clinical and Translational Science